JOURNAL OF THE GEOGRAPHICAL INSTITUTE “JOVAN CVIJIĆ”,
SERBIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES AND ARTS

THE INSTRUCTION FOR AUTHORS

Journal is a periodical publication of the Geographical Institute “Jovan Cvijić” SASA. Journal frequency is three times a year. Articles should be original contributions in the field of geography and related sciences. Submission of a paper to the Editor implies that it has not previously been published, that is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, and that, if accepted, it will not be published elsewhere in the same form without the written consent of the Editor. The manuscript should contain following sections: title, abstract, introduction, method, results, discussion, references. Proofreading of papers is strongly recommended. Manuscripts in English should be delivered to the Editorial Board in electronic form, to the e-mail address journal@gi.sanu.ac.rs in MS WORD. Examples of articles prepared according to this Instruction can be found in last issue of Journal. Authors can use a template file, which can be found on journals website, to prepare their manuscripts.

Page size: B5 (17.6 x 25 cm), top margin 4 cm; bottom, left and right margins 2.5 cm. Length of the manuscripts: minimum 6, maximum 16 pages.

Font: Times New Roman, single spaced; justified.

THE MAIN TITLE: (11 pt) bold, CAPS LOCK, 5 blank lines from the top of the page (11 pt); the length of the title is up to 70 characters with spaces. Subtitles of 1st order: Sentence case (11 pt) bold, other subtitles: Sentence case (11 pt) italics. All titles should be centered. The text below the titles is separated with a blank line (11 pt).

Author(s): name and surname (italic) (11 pt); if there are more co-authors; their names proceed in the same line; marked with one or more asterisks -* (depending on the number of various affiliations). Institutional affiliation(s) are indicated below the name of the author(s), after asterisk(s) (*) (9 pt). E-mail address of the corresponding author should be indicated in a footnote (9 pt) marked with number 1. Other footnotes are marked with ordinal numbers, 9 pt.

Abstract: bold, 9 pt, 150-250 words, no references.

Key words: bold, 9 pt, 3-5 words.
The main text: 11 pt; the beginning of the paragraph is not indented. Blank line between the paragraphs. Classifications (systematic reviews) in the text should be given with indented tabulator 1.5 cm and en dash (–) (Ctrl+Num-). Units of measurement should be written according to International System of measurement units SI.

Tables: content 9 pt, formatting as in the example below. Each table should be numbered sequentially; using the regular font 9 pt. Tables and table captions should be centered. Size of the table should be adjusted to the page size. Large tables can be placed vertically on a separate page. Source of data should be given below the table.

Figures: are sequentially numbered and centered. Figure captions are written in normal font, 9 pt, centered. If the figure content is a photo or a map, it should be indicated in the caption; e.g. Figure 1. Photo of the Vratna canyon or Figure 1. Map of the Vratna drainage area. Resolution for the figures is minimum 300 dpi. Clearly visible black and white version of the figures is preferred. If the color version is necessary, CMYK Image mode should be used instead of RGB. All figures should be submitted in electronic form, as particular files, in .jpg format. Within the text, the place for the figures should be indicated.

Acknowledgements: are given at the end of the paper, before the reference list; justified (9pt).

Reference citations in text: APA citation style is used for reference citations. APA style requires both in-text citations and a reference list. For every in-text citation there should be a full citation in the reference list and vice versa. In APA style, in-text citations are placed within sentences and paragraphs so that it is clear what information is being quoted or paraphrased and whose information is being cited.
Examples:

Works by a single author
The last name of the author and the year of publication are inserted in the text at the appropriate point.

from theory on sustainable development (Bjeljac, 2010)

If the name of the author or the date appear as part of the narrative, cite only missing information in parentheses.

Bjeljac (2010) posited that

If you have two or more sources by the same author in the same year, use lower-case letters (a,b,c) with the year.

(Bjeljac, 2010a), (Bjeljac, 2010b), etc

Works by multiple authors
When a work has two authors, always cite both names every time the reference occurs in the text. In parenthetical material join the names with an ampersand (&).

as has been shown (Radovanović & Milovanović, 2009)

In the narrative text, join the names with the word "and."

as Radovanović and Milovanović (2009) demonstrated

When a work has three, four, or five authors, cite all authors the first time the reference occurs.

Ćalić, Milošević, and Milivojević (2008) found or

(Ćalić, Milošević, & Milivojević, 2008)

In all subsequent citations, include only the surname of the first author followed by "et al." (Latin for "and others") and the year of publication.

Ćalić et al. (2008) found or

(Ćalić et al., 2008)

Six or More Authors: Use the first author's name followed by et al. in the signal phrase or in parentheses.

Harris et al. (2001) argued...

(Harris et al., 2001)

Two or More Works in the Same Parentheses: When your parenthetical citation includes two or more works, order them the same way they appear in the reference list, separated by a semi-colon.

(Berndt, 2002; Harlow, 1983)

Authors with the Same Last Name: To prevent confusion, use first initials with the last names.

(E. Johnson, 2001; L. Johnson, 1998)
Works by associations, corporations, government agencies, etc.
The names of groups that serve as authors (corporate authors) are usually written out each time they appear in a text reference.

(European Environment Agency [EEA], 2007)
When appropriate, the names of some corporate authors are spelled out in the first reference and abbreviated in all subsequent citations. The general rule for abbreviating in this manner is to supply enough information in the text citation for a reader to locate its source in the Reference List without difficulty.

(EEA, 2007)

Works with no author
When a work has no author, use the first two or three words of the work's title (omitting any initial articles) as your text reference, capitalizing each word. Place the title in quotation marks if it refers to an article, chapter of a book, or Web page. Italicize the title if it refers to a book, periodical, brochure, or report.

on climate change ("Climate and Weather", 1997)

Specific parts of a source
To cite a specific part of a source (always necessary for quotations), include the page, chapter, etc. (with appropriate abbreviations) in the in-text citation.

(Milanović & Milijašević, 2006, p. 35)
Urošev (2007) found "winter flow is the most constant in all years" (p. 120). If page numbers are not included in electronic sources (such as Web-based journals), provide the paragraph number preceded by the abbreviation "para." or the heading and following paragraph.

(Panić & Miljanović, 2008 para. 7)

Reference List: subtitle bold, centered, 9 pt. Below, the references are written in 9 pt, justified, with one blank line between each reference. References cited in the text of a research paper must appear in a Reference List or bibliography. Entries should be arranged in alphabetical order by authors' last names. Sources without authors are arranged alphabetically by title within the same list. The first line of the entry is flush with the left margin, and all subsequent lines are indented 0.5 cm to form a "hanging indent". Titles of the papers outside of the English speaking area should be translated into English, while the original title should be given in parenthesis. Serbian diacritical characters should be used for references that are originally written in Serbian language.
Please note that articles published in this Journal should be cited in other scientific publications as following: Journal of the Geographical Institute “Jovan Cvijić” SASA. Official abbreviation for references in all journals is J. Geogr. Inst. Cvijic.

Examples:

Articles in Periodicals
APA style dictates that authors are named last name followed by initials; publication year goes between parentheses, followed by a period. The title of the article is in sentence-case, meaning only the first word and proper nouns in the title are capitalized. The periodical title is run in title case, and is followed by the volume number which, with the title, is also italicized.

Article in Journal Paginated by Volume
Journals that are paginated by volume begin with page one in issue one, and continue numbering issue two where issue one ended, etc.

Article in Journal Paginated by Issue
Journals paginated by issue begin with page one every issue; therefore, the issue number gets indicated in parentheses after the volume. The parentheses and issue number are not italicized.

Two authors

Article in a Magazine

Article in a Newspaper

Letter to the Editor

Review

Books
Basic Format
Author, A. A. (Year of publication). Title of work: Capital letter also for subtitle. Location: Publisher.

One author

Two authors

Edited Book, No Author

Edited Book with an Author or Authors

A Translation

Note: When you cite a republished work, like the one above, in your text, it should appear with both dates: Laplace (1814/1951).

Edition Other Than the First

Article or Chapter in an Edited Book

Multivolume Work

Corporate Author, Author as Publisher,

Other Print Sources

An Entry in an Encyclopedia

Work Discussed in a Secondary Source
List the source the work was discussed in:

NOTE: Give the secondary source in the references list; in the text, name the original work, and give a citation for the secondary source. For example, if Seidenberg and McClelland's work is cited in Coltheart et al. and you did not read the original work, list the Coltheart et al. reference in the References. In the text, use the following citation:

In Seidenberg and McClelland's study (as cited in Coltheart, Curtis, Atkins, & Haller, 1993), ...

Dissertation Abstract

Dissertation, Published

Dissertation, Unpublished

Government Document

Report from a Private Organization

Conference Proceedings

Electronic Sources (Web Publications)

Online Scholarly Journal Article: Citing DOIs
Because online materials can potentially change URLs, APA recommends providing a Digital Object Identifier (DOI), when it is available, as opposed to the URL. DOIs are an attempt to provide stable, long-lasting links for online articles. They are unique to their documents and consist of a long alphanumeric code. Many—but not all-publishers will provide an article's DOI on the first page of the document.

Article from an Online Periodical with DOI Assigned

Article from an Online Periodical with no DOI Assigned
Online scholarly journal articles without a DOI require the URL of the journal home page. Remember that one goal of citations is to provide your readers with enough information to find the article; providing the journal home page aids readers in this process.

Abstract
If you only cite an abstract but the full text of the article is also available, cite the online abstract as other online citations, adding "[Abstract]" after the article or source name.

Newspaper Article

Electronic Books

Electronic books may include books found on personal websites, databases, or even in audio form. Use the following format if the book you are using is only provided in a digital format or is difficult to find in print. If the work is not directly available online or must be purchased, use "Available from," rather than "Retrieved from," and point readers to where they can find it. For books available in print form and electronic form, include the publish date in parentheses after the author's name.

Chapter/Section of a Web document or Online Book Chapter

NOTE: Use a chapter or section identifier and provide a URL that links directly to the chapter section, not the home page of the Web site.

Online Book Reviews

Cite the information as you normally would for the work you are quoting. (The first example below is from a newspaper article; the second is from a scholarly journal.) In brackets, write "Review of the book" and give the title of the reviewed work. Provide the web address after the words "Retrieved from," if the review is freely available to anyone. If the review comes from a subscription service or database, write "Available from" and provide the information where the review can be purchased.

Dissertation/Thesis from a Database

Online Encyclopedias and Dictionaries

Often encyclopedias and dictionaries do not provide bylines (authors' names). When no byline is present, move the entry name to the front of the citation. Provide publication dates if present or specify (n.d.) if no date is present in the entry.

Online Bibliographies and Annotated Bibliographies

Data Sets

Point readers to raw data by providing a Web address (use "Retrieved from") or a general place that houses data sets on the site (use "Available from").

Graphic Data (e.g. Interactive Maps and Other Graphic Representations of Data)
Give the name of the researching organization followed by the date. In brackets, provide a brief explanation of what type of data is there and in what form it appears. Finally, provide the project name and retrieval information.

Qualitative Data and Online Interviews
If an interview is not retrievable in audio or print form, cite the interview only in the text (not in the reference list) and provide the month, day, and year in the text. If an audio file or transcript is available online, use the following model, specifying the medium in brackets (e.g. [Interview transcript, Interview audio file]):

Online Lecture Notes and Presentation Slides
When citing online lecture notes, be sure to provide the file format in brackets after the lecture title (e.g. PowerPoint slides, Word document).

Nonperiodical Web Document, Web Page, or Report
List as much of the following information as possible (you sometimes have to hunt around to find the information. If there is a page like... http://www.somesite.com/somepage.htm, and somepage.htm doesn't have the information you're looking for, move up the URL to http://www.somesite.com/):

NOTE: When an Internet document is more than one Web page, provide a URL that links to the home page or entry page for the document. Also, if there isn't a date available for the document use (n.d.) for no date.

Computer Software/Downloaded Software
Do not cite standard office software (e.g. Word, Excel) or programming languages. Provide references only for specialized software.

Software that is downloaded from a Web site should provide the software’s version and year when available.

Online Forum or Discussion Board Posting
Include the title of the message, and the URL of the newsgroup or discussion board. Please note that titles for items in online communities (e.g. blogs, newsgroups, forums) are not italicized. If the author's name is not available, provide the screen name. Place identifiers like post or message numbers, if available, in brackets. If available, provide the URL where the message is archived (e.g. "Message posted to..., archived at...").
