THE INSTRUCTION FOR AUTHORS

Journal is a periodical publication of the Geographical Institute “Jovan Cvijić” SASA. Journal frequency is three times a year. Articles should be original contributions in the field of geography and related sciences. Submission of a paper to the Editor implies that it has not previously been published, that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, and that, if accepted, it will not be published elsewhere in the same form in any language, without the written consent of the copyright holder. The manuscript should contain following sections: title, abstract, introduction, methodology, results, discussion, conclusion and references. Proofreading of papers is strongly recommended. Manuscripts in English should be delivered to the Editorial Board in electronic form, to the e-mail address: zbornik@gi.sanu.ac.rs (MS Word in doc. format). Authors should use a Form for writing articles (template file), which can be found on the Journal’s website, to prepare their manuscripts.

Page size: B5 (17.6 x 25 cm), top margin 4 cm; bottom, left and right margins 2.5 cm. Length of the manuscripts: minimum 6, maximum 16 pages.

Font: Times New Roman, single spaced; justified.

THE MAIN TITLE: (11 pt) bold, CAPS LOCK, 5 blank lines from the top of the page (11 pt). The length of the title is not limited, but it is recommended to be concise and clearly defined. Subtitles of 2nd order: Sentence case (11 pt) bold. Other subtitles: Sentence case (11 pt) italics. All titles should be centered. The text below the titles is separated with a blank line (11 pt).

Author(s): Name and surname (italic) (11 pt); if there are more co-authors; their names proceed in the same line; marked with one or more asterisks -* (depending on the number of various affiliations). Institutional affiliation(s) are indicated below the name of the author(s) in the following order, e.g.: University, Faculty, Department, City, Country, after asterisk(s) (*) (9 pt). E-mail address of the corresponding author should be indicated in a footnote (9 pt) marked with number 1. Other footnotes are marked with ordinal numbers, 9 pt.

Abstract: bold, 9 pt, 150-250 words, put no references.

Key words: bold, 9 pt, 3-5 words.

The main text: 11 pt; the beginning of the paragraph is not indented. Blank line between the paragraphs. Classifications (systematic reviews) in the text should be given with indented tabulator 1.5 cm and en dash (–) (Ctrl+Num-). Units of measurement should be written according to International System of measurement units SI.
Tables: content 9 pt, formatting as in the example below. Each table should be numbered sequentially; using the regular font 9 pt. Tables and table captions should be centered. Size of the table should be adjusted to the page size. Large tables can be placed vertically on a separate page. Source of data should be given below the table (Align Left).

Figures: are sequentially numbered and centered. Figure captions and sources should be given below the figure (justify, 9 pt). If the figure content is a photo or a map, it should be indicated in the caption; e.g. Figure 1. Photo of the Vratna canyon or Figure 1. Map of the Vratna drainage area. Resolution for the figures is minimum 300 dpi. Clearly visible black and white version of the figures is preferred. If the color version is necessary, CMYK Image mode should be used instead of RGB. When submitting your paper, all figures remain displayed in the text, but as separate files should be send in .jpg format.

Acknowledgements: are given at the end of the paper, before the reference list; justified (9pt).

Reference citations in text: APA citation style is used for reference citations. APA style requires both in-text citations and a reference list. For every in-text citation there should be a full citation in the reference list and vice versa. In APA style, in-text citations are placed within sentences and paragraphs so that it is clear what and whose data or information is being quoted or paraphrased.

Examples:

Papers by a single author
The last name of the author and the year of publication are inserted in the text at the appropriate point.

From theory on sustainable development (Bjeljac, 2010) …

If the name of the author or the date appear as part of the narrative, cite only missing information in parentheses.

Bjeljac (2010) posited that…

If you have two or more sources by the same author in the same year, use lower - case letters (a, b, c) with the year. (Bjeljac, 2010a), (Bjeljac, 2010b), etc.
Papers by multiple authors

When a paper has two authors, always cite both names every time the reference occurs in the text. In parenthetical material join the names with an ampersand (&).

As has been shown (Radovanović & Milovanović, 2009) …

In the narrative text, join the names with the word "and".

As Radovanović and Milovanović (2009) demonstrated…

When a paper has up to five authors, cite all authors the first time the reference occurs.

Čalić, Milošević, and Milivojević (2008) found…

(Čalić, Milošević, & Milivojević, 2008)

In all subsequent citations, include only the surname of the first author followed by "et al." (Latin for "and others") and the year of publication.

Čalić et al. (2008) found…

(Čalić et al., 2008)

Six or More Authors: Use the first author's name followed by et al. in the signal phrase or in parentheses.

Harris et al. (2001) argued…

(Harris et al., 2001)

Two or More Papers in the Same Parentheses: When your parenthetical citation includes two or more papers, order them the same way they appear in the reference list, separated by a semi-colon.

(Berndt, 2002; Harlow, 1983)

Authors with the Same Last Name: To prevent confusion, use first initials with the last names.

(L. Johnson, 1998; E. Johnson, 2001)

Papers by associations, corporations, government agencies, etc.

The names of groups that serve as authors (corporate authors) are usually written out each time they appear in a text reference.

(Edward & Milivojević, 2008)

When appropriate, the names of some corporate authors are spelled out in the first reference and abbreviated in all subsequent citations. The general rule for abbreviating in this manner is to supply enough information in the text citation for a reader to locate its source in the Reference List without difficulty.

(EEA, 2007)

Papers with no author

When a paper has no author, use the first two or three words of the paper's title (omitting any initial articles) as your text reference, capitalizing each word. Place the title in quotation marks if it refers to an article, chapter of a book, or Web page. Italicize the title if it refers to a book, periodical, brochure, or report.

On climate change ("Climate and Weather", 1997) …

Specific parts of a source

To cite a specific part of a source (always necessary for quotations), include the page, chapter, etc. (with appropriate abbreviations) in the in-text citation.

(Milanović & Milijašević, 2006, p. 35)

Urošev (2007) concluded that "winter flow is the most constant in …" (p. 120).
If page numbers are not included in electronic sources (such as Web-based journals), provide the paragraph number preceded by the abbreviation "para." or the heading and following paragraph.

(Panić & Miljanović, 2008, para. 7)

Reference List: subtitle bold, centered, 9 pt. Below, the references are written in 9 pt, justified, with one blank line between each reference. References cited in the text of a paper must appear in a Reference List or Bibliography. Entries should be arranged in alphabetical order by authors' last names. Sources without authors are arranged alphabetically by title within the same list. The first line of the entry is flush with the left margin, and all subsequent lines are indented 0.5 cm to form a "hanging indent". Titles of the papers outside of the English-speaking area should be translated into English, while the original title should be given in parenthesis. Serbian diacritical characters should be used for references that are originally written in Serbian language. Please note that articles published in this Journal should be cited in other scientific publications as following: Journal of the Geographical Institute “Jovan Cvijić” SASA. Official abbreviation for references in all journals is J. Geogr. Inst. Cvijic.

Examples:

Articles in On-line and Printed Journals
The APA style dictates that authors are named last name followed by initials; publication year goes between parentheses, followed by a period. The title of the article is in sentence-case, meaning only the first word and proper nouns in the title are capitalized. The periodical title is run in title case followed by the volume, both italicized, ending by the issue and pages. Because online materials can potentially change URLs, APA recommends providing a Digital Object Identifier (DOI), when it is available, as opposed to the URL. DOIs are an attempt to provide stable, long-lasting links for online articles. They are unique to their documents and consist of a long alphanumeric code. Many-but not all-publishers will provide an article's DOI on the first page of the document.

Article from an Online Journals with DOI Assigned

Article from an Online Journals with no DOI Assigned
Online scholarly journal articles without a DOI require the URL of the journal home page. Remember that one goal of citations is to provide your readers with enough information to find the article; providing the journal home page aids readers in this process.

Paper Discussed in a Secondary Source
List the source the paper was discussed in:

NOTE: Give the secondary source in the references list; in the text, name the original paper, and give a citation for the secondary source. For example, if Seidenberg and McClelland's paper is cited in Coltheart et al. and you did not read the original paper, list the Coltheart et al. reference in the References. In the text, use the following citation: In Seidenberg and McClelland's study (as cited in Coltheart, Curtis, Atkins, & Haller, 1993) ...

Report from a Private Organization

Conference Proceedings

Electronic Sources (Web Publications)

Abstract
If you only cite an abstract but the full text of the article is also available, cite the online abstract as other online citations, adding "[Abstract]" after the article or source name.

Newspaper Article

Electronic Books
Electronic books may include books found on personal web-sites, databases, or even in audio form. If the paper is not directly available online or must be purchased, use "Available from" rather than "Retrieved from" and point readers to where they can find it. For the books, available in print form and electronic form, include the publish date in parentheses after the author's name.

Chapter/Section of a Web document or Online Book Chapter

NOTE: Use a chapter or section identifier and provide an URL that links directly to the chapter section, not the home page of the Web site.

Online Book Reviews
Cite the information as you normally would for the paper you are quoting. (The first example below is from a newspaper article; the second is from a scholarly journal.) In brackets, write "Review of the book" and give the title of the reviewed paper. Provide the web address after the words "Retrieved from", if the review is freely available to anyone. If the review comes from a subscription service or database, write "Available from" and provide the information where the review can be purchased.

Dissertation/Thesis from a Database

Online Encyclopedias and Dictionaries
Often encyclopedias and dictionaries do not provide bylines (authors' names). When no byline is present, move the entry name to the front of the citation. Provide publication dates if present or specify (n.d.) if no date is present in the entry.

Online Bibliographies and Annotated Bibliographies

Data Sets
Point readers to raw data by providing a Web address (use "Retrieved from") or a general place that houses data sets on the site (use "Available from").

Graphic Data (e.g. Interactive Maps and Other Graphic Representations of Data)
Give the name of the researching organization followed by the date. In brackets, provide a brief explanation of what type of data is there and in what form it appears. Finally, provide the project name and retrieval information.

Qualitative Data and Online Interviews
If an interview is not retrievable in audio or print form, cite the interview only in the text (not in the reference list) and provide the month, day, and year in the text. If an audio file or transcript is available online, use the following model, specifying the medium in brackets (e.g. [Interview transcript, Interview audio file]):

Online Lecture Notes and Presentation Slides
When citing online lecture notes, be sure to provide the file format in brackets after the lecture title (e.g. PowerPoint slides, Word document).

Non-periodical Web Document, Web Page, or Report
List as much of the following information as possible, e.g. If an internet page like http://www.somesite.com/somepage.htm, and somepage.htm doesn't have the information you're looking for, move up the URL to http://www.somesite.com/):

NOTE: When an Internet document is more than one Web page, provide a URL that links to the home page or entry page for the document.

Computer Software/Downloaded Software
Do not cite standard office software (e.g. Word, Excel) or programming languages. Provide references only for specialized software.

Software that is downloaded from a Web site should provide the software’s version and year when available.

Online Forum or Discussion Board Posting
Include the title of the message, and the URL of the newsgroup or discussion board. Please note that titles for items in online communities (e.g. blogs, newsgroups, forums) are not italicized. If the author's name is not available, provide the screen name. Place identifiers like post or message numbers, if available, in brackets. If available, provide the URL where the message is archived.
